

Confucius Institute Version Dance Little Apple Hits Troy University

On the afternoon of September 18, the Confucius Institute at Troy University(CIT) carries out a weekly "Chinese Corner" in front of the small square of Bibb Graves Hall. The theme of this week is to learn Chinese pop hop dance Little Apple. Under the leadership of Director, Dr. Xu, CIT staff and students in uniforms dance together with the cheerful music. Which attracts many students nearby and they also join the dancing. After it, students from different countries taste Chinese food. This event hits the opening overture for the tenth "Confucius Institute Day" series of celebration activities to be undertaken on the 26th of this month. Taichi, the routine of "Chinese Corner", with soothing forms, shows students another style of Chinese culture.
