

Staff of CIT attended Fort Rucker Asian Pacific Heritage Month Kick-Off Event

On May 2nd, 5 teachers from CIT were invited by Fort Rucker Army to join in their Annual Asian Pacific Heritage Month Kick-Off Event. CIT staff showed the audience traditional musical instruments like bamboo flute and bawu etc. and explained the salient features of each and every musical instruments they brought to the event. Yuying Zeng, a Chinese student at Troy University played bamboo flute and hulusi, which was acclaimed by all. During meal time, dumplings and spring rolls altogether over 1000 had been consumed quickly. At the celebration there were also Korean team and Japanese team. During the intervals of the performances the luck draw activity organized by the host organization enlivened the whole celebration. CIT's Chinese cultural promotion had contributed their own share to the success of the whole event.

