

Confucius Classroom at Charles Henderson Middle School Hold Inauguration Ceremony

On September 25th, 2015, inauguration of the Confucius Classroom at Charles Henderson Middle School (CHMS) was held at their indoor basketball stadium. Troy University Vice Chancellor Dr. Ingram showed up and delivered a speech. CIT also brought to the audience traditional Chinese performances such as ethnic dance and lion dance on the ceremony.

CHMS is a public school in Troy city and has about 300 students. CIT Confucius Classroom at CHMS will help local students to know more about Chinese culture. There are more than 60 students signed for Chinese program.

At present, CIT provided a volunteer Chinese teacher for CHMS. CIT granted 20,000 USD to CHMS in support of the promotion of this Chinese program. This is the first Confucius Classroom established in 2015 autumn semester.

