

Confucius Institute at Troy University Held 2015 Winter HSK Successfully on Montgomery Campus

On November 14, 2015, Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) on Montgomery campus held winter HSK test at Bartlett Hall. The test covers 4 levels from HSK Level 1 to HSK Level 4 and last from 9:00 am to 12:35 pm. Examinees, aged from middle school students to adults, are with different national backgrounds including Native Americans, Chinese Americans as well as Korean Americans.

The HSK test is launched in an effort to better serve Chinese language learners and with more participants received in Montgomery, it is also a proof of the growing influence of Chinese language in American communities.
