

Four New Confucius Classrooms Approved

On Aug.31, 2015, four new Confucius Classrooms, Indian Springs School (Birmingham), Pike Road School (Pike Road), Baldwin Arts and Academics Magnet School (Montgomery), and Forest Avenue Academic Magnet School (Montgomery) have been officially approved by Hanban Headquarters. The four classrooms are affiliated with the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT).

The CIT has made a lot of preparation before this approval. The extension of the Confucius Classrooms, located in different areas, will have more and more growing influence of Chinese language and culture programs across Alabama.

Each Confucius Classroom will be granted 10,000 USD as its initial operation fund, according to the officer of Hanban Headquarters.
