

CCIEE delegation visited the Confucius Institute at Troy University

On November 10, 2016, at half past eight in the morning, CCIEE delegation visited the Confucius Institute at Troy University. At nine o'clock in the morning, the delegation composed of chancellors from 15 Chinese universities was divided into three groups, and had formal meetings with the Chancellor of Troy university--- Jack Hawkins, Executive Vice Chancellor---- Earl Ingram and Assistant Vice President---- Curtis Porter. After the meetings, the CIT instructors led them to visit the Confucius Institute and the exhibition hall, watched the documentary films. Dr. Hong Xu the Director of CIT gave a brief introduction about the history and the existing scale of Confucius Institute at Troy University. The delegation gave high praise to the colorful activities and the unremitting efforts made by CIT. At last, they hoped that in the near future, they could strengthen exchanges, expand cooperation projects, and realize common development not only with Troy University, but also with Confucius Institute at Troy University.

