

Confucius Institute Open Day at Troy University

On January 12, 2017, Confucius Institute at Troy University organized the first Chinese class promotion for this new semester on Troy campus at Trojan Center. CIT staff from both Troy campus and Dothan campus took part in the event. The promotion was to distribute flyers of Chinese courses, introduce Chinese culture to students and Trojan Center staff. We have provided traditional Chinese food -- spring rolls and fried dumplings for them. The Trojan Center staff and students enjoyed the food, and at the same time learnt some knowledge about Chinese culture, and got familiar with Chinese programs of Confucius Institute. The promotion attracted a large number of students and staff to come for more details about the courses, especially the Chinese Mandarin courses, Chinese corner and Tai Chi classes. Through this promotion, the students at Troy University have gained a better understanding of Confucius Institute at Troy University and Chinese courses as well.
