Joe & Mary Cromeans Charitable Foundation Annual Scholarship

When Gary Cromens founded the Cromens Foundation in 2012, he was not only looking for a way to make a meaningful difference in the lives of others, but he also wanted to honor the legacy of his parents, Mary Ann and Joe Cromens, who spent their lives selflessly giving back to the community. Today, the Cromens Foundation helps advance the field of medicine and broadens the arts by establishing scholarships at universities throughout the South. In 2023, their charitable pursuits reached Troy University by establishing the Joe & Mary Cromeans Charitable Foundation Annual Scholarship to benefit junior or senior students pursuing a degree in either the medical or fine arts field of study. Students in a medical field should be in either the College of Arts and Sciences or the College of Health and Human Services seeking a degree in Biomedical Sciences (Pre-Med), Exercise Science, or Nursing. Students enrolled in a fine arts field should be in the College of Communication and Fine Arts seeking a degree in either the Department of Art and Design, John M. Long School of Music, or the Department of Theatre and Dance. Recipients must have a 3.25 GPA and financial need. The Troy University Scholarship Committee makes selections with possible suggestions from the Dean, Department Chair, or faculty member. Six students from both fields of study are selected annually. The twelve recipients, called the "Cromeans Scholars," receive scholarship funds of $2,500.00 for the academic year.

Endless Opportunities RMI Scholarship

While a student at Troy University, Douglas Dick was on the receiving end of scholarships provided by the school's generous donors. Douglas decided to pay that generosity forward after graduating from the Sorrell College of Business and entering the workforce. So in 2023, Douglas established the Endless Opportunities RMI Scholarship to benefit students majoring in Risk Management Insurance on TROY's main campus. To qualify, students must be heavily engaged with the RMI program, have a 3.4 GPA, and have completed the Principles in Risk Management and Insurance course.
