

May 22, '20.

Dearest Mother,

I am going to town now and as Mrs. Hurd's is waiting for me I won't stop to write a letter but just send the order so it will go out on this noon's mail.

Please keep this $25 until I send you $20 more which will make $45, pay that and then I will just over $200 even. I wish you would tell me - after you pay this next amount whether I am right or not. Just say in your letter, that with Miss F. is O.K. see.

I had to send the order now however as it wouldn't be good after 6 months so cash it now and wait until I send you the other 20 before you pay.

With heaps of love and kisses from your true loving daughter,
Joyce.
