Dear Mother,

This is Memorial Day and I have just come home from Church where we had a Memorial Service.

All those who gave their lives over- here, either in France or else-where, will be honored to-day and to-morrow by members of the A. F. in S. Our General is in France at one of the cemeteries and other officers and men are ~~also~~ also in France

well we had quite a bit of excitement this morning in the Keyton family.

It seems Jack's nurse Matilda, my second girl, took him out to walk this morning before we got up. When I came out into the dining room she told me Jack was gone, I told Hon and he immediately dressed and went out to search for him but in vain, finally Hon had to go down to head quarters on business so I dressed for Church, just before I left I heard the maid next door

calling Matilde and shouting Jack is on the street, only she said it in German, I flew out ^{we} and brought the young man up stairs.

It was Church time by then so the car came for me and I went by Headquarters and told Hon and then walked in Church late as a result of my puppy. Hon was so happy to think Jack did come back he told him (Jack) that he thought he would kill him and stuff him then he wouldn't be so hard to take care of.

Intermission

Monday. While I was writing you about our pet Hon came up in back of me and scared me so I had to get up and tickle him as a result I didn't get another opportunity to write all day. Sunday P.M. I couldn't write my eyes were so bad and later on in the evening Capt. ^{and} Mrs. Bledsoe came over so you see how our day was spent.

To-day is a holiday for our men and Hon has been home most all day.
