

CIT attended Montgomery Campus Open House

On Apr. 29, CIT staff went to Montgomery to attend Open House. Open House Day is an important teaching promotion event for Troy University one time every semester, which would have a direct influence on students' signing up for courses and participating in campus activities. CIT takes this great chance to demonstrate traditional Chinese culture to the attendees in this event, and it was effective to popularize and promote CIT.

