

HYUNDAI HYSCO AMERICA Visited Confucius Institute at Troy University for Job Search

Feb. 17, 2015, Mr. Jonathan Byrd, an honored guest, visited the Confucius Institute at Troy University. Mr. Byrd is SPHR and General Affairs Manager of HYUNDAI HYSCO AMERICA. His visit is to seek CIT assistance in career opportunities with HYUNDAI. Dr. Iris Xu, director, and Mr. Charles Jones, Administrative Support Specialist, both of CIT, had a meeting with Mr. Byrd about a Career Affair scheduled on March 3rd on Troy Campus.

This career opportunity is for two people who are nationals from China and can speak Chinese, Korean and English; preferably, graduates from Troy University, and HYUNDAI would be willing to support visa application and change of status. The salary range for the two positions including benefit is around $35,000 per annum.

HYUNDAI HYSCO AMERICA Co., Greenville, AL, where the two new hires will be located, is a steel coil and sheeting supplier for chassis and automotive body parts, specializing in slitting cut-to-length blanking press and laser welding.

Confucius Institute is built to establish mutual beneficial alliances with governments, corporations, educational and research entities, and other institutions, to make CIT the center for Chinese-related teaching, research and other activities at Troy University and in Alabama.
