

Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) Joined the 2016 International Festival in Montgomery

CIT joined representatives of 20 other countries at the annual International Festival where they demonstrated Chinese brush writing and Tai Chi, a traditional Chinese internal martial art.

International Festival is one important part of the CIT New Year celebration series designed with the motto of "Letting more people meet and grow closer to the Chinese culture."

CIT also introduced Chinese New Year activities to attendees as well as the upcoming Chinese Tai Chi class on Troy Montgomery Campus.

The CIT booth displayed Chinese New Year couplets, Chinese lanterns, Chinese knots, and the "Fu" character, meaning blessing and happiness, among other items.

The festival was held in Montgomery, Alabama on February, 11 and there were booths representing China, America, South Korea, Japan, Chile, Mexico, India, Morocco and Nigeria.

