

Experience Exchanging and Exploring mutual development

- Southern University of Texas delegation visited the Confucius Institute

On December 1st, 2016, a delegation from the Southern University of Texas arrived at Confucius Institute at Troy University, Troy Campus. The director of CIT, Dr. Hong Xu and the Associate Professor Lin Cao led them to visit the International Art Center and Terracotta Warriors reproductions on Troy campus. Then CIT staff on the Troy campus introduced the Confucius Institute, language lab, conference room, as well as the daily routines of CIT. Then Dr. Hong Xu gave a systematic introduction of CIT development to the members of the Southern University of Texas delegation. Finally, they exchanged gifts, took some pictures together. After one-day exploration, they felt amazed at CIT's efficiency at work and gave high praise to the Confucius Institute. At last, they went to Montgomery to get ready for the class observation in Pike Road School the next day.

